“I love what I do. I don’t know how to do anything else. I want to die on stage”, Martin said at a news conference in Hong Kong to promote his latest album, Almas del Silencio.

Dressed in a striped shirt unbuttoned to reveal a jade Buddha pendant, the 31-year-old Puerto Rican singer also said he was particularly glad to be touring this region – with stops in Shanghai, Singapore and Bangkok – because it lets him touch people’s hearts after the recent SARS outbreak devastated families and economics across Asia.

Martin said he was here to get people to “enjoy life as it comes,” despite “this pain that we all went through, not only the people here in Hongkong, or the people in some parts of Asia. The entire planets suffered from this.”
